

Helsinki, March 1st, 1939.

Monsieur le
Prof. Charles Rist, Président, Institut Scientifique de Recherches Economiques et Sociales, 4, Rue Michelet,
Paris (6).

Dear Professor,

hereby I take the liberty of availing myself of your courtesy kindness by introducing to you Mr. N.G. Ehrnrooth, Ph.D., Lecturer of Economics at the University of Helsinki, who in a near future will call on you.

Mr. N.G. Ehrnrooth is a son of a friend of mine, Senator Leo Ehrnrooth, former Minister for Foreign Affairs and former member of the Saar Government appointed by the League of Nations. He ~~is already in~~ ^{is already in} France where he intends his studies, ~~to continue~~ to study, by means of a stipendium of the State, specially ^{of his studies} traffic economy.

I shall greatly appreciate if you kindly will receive Mr. N.G. Ehrnrooth and ^{lend} ~~give~~ him your ^{benevolent} ~~attention~~ assistance in attaining ^{the attainment of} the objects of his stay in France.

Thanking you in advance for any courtesy extended to Mr. Ehrnrooth I beg to remain, Dear Professor, with kindest personal regards

Yours sincerely

Governor.
