

Helsinki, October 6th, 1938.

N:145.

Westminster Bank Limited,
Head Office,
41, Lothbury,
London E.C.2.

Dear Sirs,

Our Board of Management is granting from time to time ^{scholarships} ~~foundations~~ to our younger officers for practical banking studies and for the study of languages abroad.

This year such a stipendium has been granted to Mr. V. Therman, M.A. and the purpose of this letter is to ask you whether you would permit him to work as volunteer at one of your offices for a period of four months from the beginning of January next.

We should greatly appreciate if you kindly would comply with our request and in this way assist Mr. V. Therman in attaining the object of a stay in England. for the purpose mentioned,

Accept your reply

Helsinki, September 14th, 1938.

Professor Fried Riefler, Princeton, U.S.A.

I take the liberty of introducing to you of this letter a young friend of mine of Heurlin, M.A., a son of my colleague in Board of Management of the Bank of Finland, Mr. Lauri Heurlin.

Mr. Kaarlo af Heurlin is visiting the United States for the purpose of studying there economics and politics.
For a certain time he will make his stay in Washington and afterwards he intends to study also at other places.

We should greatly appreciate any assistance which you kindly would extend to Mr. af Heurlin in attaining the object of his stay in the United States and thanking you in anticipation I am, Dear Professor, with kindest personal regards,

Yours sincerely

Governor.