LONDON, E. C. 4.

3rd November, 1925.

Dear Mr. Ryti,

You will remember that when I had the pleasure of seeing you in London recently, I told you that as Mr. Kotilainen was visiting England this month, I should not be able to go to Finland until after the New Year. I have just received a telegram from him announcing that he has decided to cancel his proposed journey, and I am therefore leaving for Finland in a few days, and shall be arriving in Helsingfors on the 13th inst. I hope to have the pleasure of calling on you very shortly after that date.

With kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,

J. V. Bell

Risto Ryti, Esq.,
