

24, Abingdon Street, S.W.1.

Telephone. Victoria 2098.

16th February, 1925.

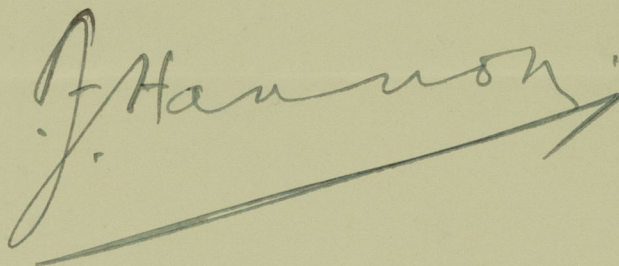

Dear Mr Rytie,

I understand you are in London for a few days and I shall be very much honoured if you will give me the pleasure of your company at dinner at the House of Commons tomorrow, Wednesday, evening at 8 o'clock, Room A. I shall have a few friends to meet you and we can discuss the economic prospects of Finland.

Perhaps you would kindly telephone this office.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'J. Hannon', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Monsieur Rytie,
Hotel Metropole.