

24, Abingdon Street, S.W.1.

17th February, 1925.

Dear Mr Ryti,

I am so sorry that I shall not have the pleasure of seeing you in the House of Commons this evening. I hope you will let me know when you hope to be in London again so that we may make arrangements to meet.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Monsieur Ryti.