

ONE HUNDRED BROADWAY

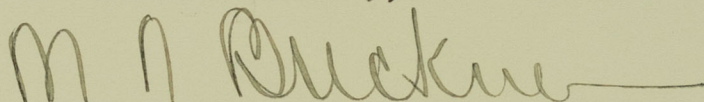

New York, February 27, 1925.

My dear Mr. Ryti:

I was indeed sorry to miss you when you called at the Trust Company yesterday and am glad to hear from Mr. Murnane that you are free on Wednesday evening next, March 4th, and will give me the pleasure of your company at dinner at The Links, 36 East 62nd Street, on that evening at a quarter before eight o'clock.

I am looking forward with much pleasure to seeing you.

Yours sincerely,
