SOUTHAMPTON.

My dear Mr. Ryti,

This is just one line to wish you a pleasant trip to America and a safe return.

I was so sorry not to see you when you kindly called upon me yesterday. I had just gone away for the week-end.

Hoping to have the pleasure of meeting you again ere long.

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

Arthur W. Kiddy.

P.S. I was very much interested in reading the political cable this morning, and noticing how near you had come to be elected President of Finland.
