

THE NEW YORK TRUST COMPANY
NEW YORK

GEORGE MURNANE
VICE PRESIDENT

March 4th, 1925

Dear Mr. Ryti:

We will gather for dinner with Mr. Buckner tonight at 7:45. Dinner will be informal, a smoking jacket being sufficient.

I think it might be of some interest to you to know in advance who are the people who will be with you at dinner. They include:

|----------------------|--|
| Mr. Mortimer Buckner | Chairman of the Board of Directors of The New York Trust Company |
| Mr. Harvey Gibson | President of The New York Trust Company |
| Mr. Fred Allen | Senior partner of the firm of Lee, Higginson & Company |
| Mr. James Brown | Senior partner of the firm of Brown Brothers & Company |
| Mr. Paul Warburg | Chairman of the Board of Directors of the International Acceptance Bank and Chairman of the Advisory Committee of the Federal Reserve Board |

As I explained to you by telegram, Mr. Buckner invited Mr. Ben. Strong but he found it impossible to attend owing to the necessity of his being in Washington tonight.

Dinner will be quite informal, but I know it would be interesting to the guests if at the conclusion of dinner you found it convenient to tell something of Finland, the experiences you have had in its currency and financial problems and the probable trend of affairs there.

Mr. Buckner and I felt that you would be particularly interested in meeting these men as they would be to meet you, as the firms which they represent have each had a great interest in Finland. The only other person I thought of asking was Mr. Mitchell of the National City Bank, but I realized you were already in close touch with him and that perhaps it would be more useful to you to you to meet some of the other people.

If convenient to you I will call for you at the Hotel Plaza at 7:30.

Sincerely yours,
