GEORGE MURNANE
VICE PRESIDENT

February 24th, 1925

Dear Mr. Ryti:

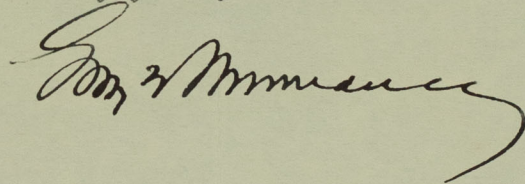

We are advised that your steamer is arriving today, and I have given instructions to have a man from the bank meet you in order to facilitate your landing and your arrival at the hotel.

I take this early occasion to express to you our great satisfaction at your visit to this country, a visit that I know will add to the already splendid relations existing between our countries.

We will be at your entire disposal while you are here, and if by any chance you desire office facilities, please do not hesitate to call upon us. I will look forward to early word from you, at which time I trust it will be possible to arrange to have you meet our people.

With kindest personal regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Risto Ryti,
c/o Hotel Plaza,
Fifth Avenue and 58th Street,
